

Education Agent Policy & Procedures

Purpose

This policy is to ensure that Education Agents with whom Bentley College has written agreements with act ethically, honestly and in the best interests of overseas students, as well as uphold the reputation of Australia's international education sector.

This policy will also ensure that intending students will benefit from the monitoring strategies of Bentley College and from Bentley College ability to terminate agreements with Education Agents who engage in false or misleading recruitment practices.

This contributes to compliance with Standard 4 of the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018, as well as Standards 2.3, 2.4 and 8.3 of the Standards for Registered Training Organisations 2015.

Policy

1. Recruitment of Agents

- Bentley College will only work with reputable Education Agents who have an appropriate knowledge and understanding of the Australian international education industry.

2. Written Agreements

- Bentley College develops and implements a written agreement with each Education Agent that is engaged to recruit students on its behalf.
- Written agreements will specify all of the following:
  - Bentley College responsibilities, including that Bentley College is responsible at all times for compliance with the Standards for Registered Training Organisations, ESOS Act and National Code 2018.
  - Bentley College requirements for agents who represent them, including the requirement to:
    - declare in writing and take reasonable steps to avoid conflicts of interests with duties as an Education Agent of Bentley College.
    - observe appropriate levels of confidentiality and transparency in dealings with overseas students or intending overseas students.
    - act honestly and in good faith, and in the best interests of the student.
    - have appropriate knowledge and understanding of the international education system in Australia, including the Australian International Education and Training Agent Code of Ethics.
  - Bentley College processes for monitoring the activities of Education Agents in representing the provider, and ensuring the Education Agent is giving students accurate and up-to-date information on Bentley College services
  - corrective action that may be taken by Bentley College if an Education Agent does not comply with its obligations under the written agreement.
  - Bentley College grounds for termination of the registered provider's written agreement with the Education Agent.

Education Agent Policy & Procedures

- the circumstances under which information about the Education Agent may be disclosed by Bentley College and the Commonwealth or state or territory agencies.
- Need to provide accurate and factual responses to information requests from the VET Regulator or any other Commonwealth state or territory body or as required by law, relevant to the recruitment of students.
- Need to cooperate with the VET regulator in the conduct of audits and the monitoring of its operations
- A list of Education Agents with whom Bentley College has a written agreement will be included on Bentley College's website. As a minimum this information will include the agency name, name of the principal agent, legal entity and street address.
- Bentley College will advise ASQA of the third-party arrangements in place with Education Agents in accordance with clause 8.3 of the Standards:
  - Within thirty days of an agreement commencing.
  - Within thirty days of an agreement coming to an end.

3. Monitoring and termination

- Where Bentley College becomes aware that, or has reason to believe, the Education Agent or an employee or contractor or subcontractor of that Education Agent has not complied with the Education Agent's responsibilities. Bentley College will take immediate corrective action.
- Where Bentley College becomes aware, or has reason to believe, that the Education Agent or an employee or subcontractor of the Education Agent is engaging in false or misleading recruitment practices, Bentley College will immediately terminate its relationship with the Education Agent, or require the Education Agent to terminate its relationship with the employee or subcontractor who engaged in those practices.
- Bentley College will not accept students from an Education Agent if it knows or reasonably suspects the Education Agent to be:
  - providing migration advice, unless that Education Agent is authorised to do so under the Migration Act.
  - engaged in, or to have previously engaged in, dishonest recruitment practices, including the deliberate attempt to recruit a student where this clearly conflicts with the obligations of registered providers under Standard 7 (Overseas student transfers).
  - facilitating the enrolment of a student who the Education Agent believes will not comply with the conditions of his or her visa.
  - using PRISMS to create CoEs for other than bona fide students.
- The monitoring activities of Bentley College will identify where an agent may be involved in any of the above activities. Bentley College will also take into account reports from students where the number of students is a reasonable proportion of the students recruited by an agent (e.g. 3 in 10 students).

4. Marketing Materials

- Education agents will be provided with current and accurate marketing information that meets the requirements of Bentley College's Marketing Information Policy and Procedure.
